

Lauren Silber

Managing Consultant

Lauren Silber is a Managing Consultant at Quadrant Economics LLC with 10+ years of experience in economics and finance. She has a master's degree in Applied Economics from Johns Hopkins University, and a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from American University.

Ms. Silber has over seven years of experience assisting clients in contractual and investment disputes, providing expertise in valuation, economic and financial analysis, and quantitative research. She has consulted on a variety of cases involving discounted cash flow (DCF) analysis, market-based valuations, and macroeconomic and financial analysis.

Ms. Silber's experience includes the valuation of damages in Latin America, Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa with industry experience in energy, banking, mining, oil and gas, and transportation. She has assisted in the preparation of expert witness reports for the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC), the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), and litigation in the United States.

Before her career in economic and valuation consulting, Ms. Silber provided economic research support including econometric modeling, data management, analysis and reporting of trends in banking, as well as program support for bank examinations.
